

The Cora A. Martin Scholarship Application

To be eligible for consideration, an applicant for the Scholarship must possess the following characteristics:

- Full-time Health Services Administration Major with a concentration in Applied Gerontology or Long-Term Care maintaining a GPA of 3.5 or better

To apply, please submit the following documents along with the attached application:

- Personal statement

Personal Data

Name _____ Student Id # _____
Last First MI

Address _____
Street City State Zip

Telephone (_____) _____ Email _____

Anticipated Graduation: Semester _____ Year _____

Current Gerontology Student? _____

Career Goal _____

Please list volunteer/service activities, contacts and dates of service. _____

Cora A. Martin co-founded the Center for Studies in Aging and was the first woman to get her Ph.D. in Sociology at her University. Dr. Martin was a life long learner focused on wellness and aging, and she believed that the aging process was journey to be celebrated. Please describe in 2000 words or less, your perception of the aging process and how that relates to pursuing a degree focused in gerontology.

Signature _____ Date _____

All information due in DAR office no later than March 31, 2017